One of the greatest things about being a kid is that you get to choose the career you want. If you're a good student and you make good grades, there are dozens of career choices waiting for you.

If you love animals, you could be an animal doctor (veterinarian). If you're good with numbers, you could be an accountant or even a mathematician. And, of course, if you love computers, there are many high-tech opportunities waiting for you.

Take a look at some of the careers on pages 2 and 3 and also check out the Career Analyzer. Just scan the QR Code on page 4, answer the questions, and you'll find careers that suit your interests and personality!

MATCHING

Match each interest shown below to the career that most closely matches that interest. Write the career in the blank.
